

K-love offers radio programming with safe and wholesome substance for the family. The music and dialog is very important to many listeners. If K-love was dis-placed we would be subject to more of the same garbage spewing from people such as Howard Stern etc.

K-love and other such christian radio is one of the last areas of entertainment not yet degraded by un-ethical and immoral secularism. Please protect Christian radio broadcasting on the existing channels and frequencies etc.